· Inappropriate, rude, or confrontational behavior by a coach, player or spectator may lead to disqualification from the game and possible suspension. These decisions are made at the sole discretion of the League Officials.

The Coach is the only person allowed to talk to the official before, during and after the game.

Number of Players

The maximum number of players on the field per team at any one time is eight (8).

Teams may play with lesser players if necessary. Teams with less than 5 players will result in a forfeit in league standings.

Each game will consist of two, twenty minute halves.

Halftime will be 3 minutes long.

Play will be started with a kick-off at the center mark of the field.

The opposing team must be 10 yards from the ball at kick off and each re-start.

A coin flip will take place at the beginning of each game. The team that wins the coin flip will get to choose if they would like kick-off or choose a side to defend. The visiting team calls the coin flip. Teams shall rotate sides and kick-off at halftime.

Any player directly involved in a play, that is in an offside position will be called offside and a free kick will be awarded to the opposing team at the spot of the foul. As the offside rule is subject to the referee's discretion and the referee may not have assistant linesmen at the field, criticism directed to the referee is dissent and will not be tolerated.

The referee will show yellow (caution) and red (sending off) cards in accordance with the laws of the game. A red card results in ejection from the game. (Two yellow cards is one red card.) Standard FIFA rules will be followed for rules not addressed here.
